- 3.1. to make PHI available to the Covered Entity (or, at the direction of the Covered Entity, to the individual) to the extent and in the manner necessary for Covered Entity to satisfy the access requirements of Section 164.524 of the Privacy Rule;
- 3.2. if Business Associate maintains electronic PHI, it agrees to make such electronic PHI electronically available to the applicable individual in the format required by the Privacy Rule;
- 3.3. to make PHI available for amendment and incorporate any amendments to PHI in accordance with the requirements of Section 164.526 of the Privacy Rule;

Business Associate shall cooperate with Covered Entity in providing any accounting required on a timely basis; and
- 3.5. to comply with any requests for restrictions on certain disclosures of PHI, to which Covered Entity has agreed or which are required by the HIPAA Rules, of which Business Associate is notified by Covered Entity.

4. PERMITTED USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PHI BY BUSINESS ASSOCIATE.

- 4.1. General Use and Disclosure. Except as otherwise limited in this BAA, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI to perform the functions, activities or services for, or on behalf of, Covered Entity as specified in the Agreement, provided that such use or disclosure would not violate the Privacy Rule if performed by Covered Entity.
- 4.2. Disclosure and Use of De-Identified Data. Except as otherwise limited by the HIPAA Rules, Business Associate may convert PHI to De-identified ("DID") and use and disclose DID provided that such de-identification, use or disclosure complies with 45 C.F.R. Part 164.14.
- 4.3. Specific Use and Disclosure. Except as otherwise limited in this BAA, Business Associate may use or disclose PHI, if necessary:
 - (a) for the proper management and administration of Business Associate or to carry out its legal responsibilities, provided that, as to any such disclosure, (a) the disclosure is required by law and (b) Business Associate obtains reasonable assurances from the person to whom the information is disclosed that it will be held confidentially and used or further disclosed only as required by law or for the purpose for which it was disclosed to the person, and the person notifies Business Associate of any instances of which it is aware in which the confidentiality of the information has been breached; or
 - (b) for any Data Aggregation Services to be provided by Business Associate for the Covered Entity.

5. TERM AND TERMINATION.

- 5.1. Term. The Term of this BAA shall be effective on the date set forth above, and shall be coterminous with the term of the Agreement, unless earlier terminated as provided for herein.
- 5.2. Termination. Upon Covered Entity becoming aware of a violation of this BAA by Business Associate, or reasonably believes that Business Associate will be in violation of this BAA, Covered Entity shall:

- (a) provide written notice and a reasonable opportunity for Business Associate to cure the violation, not to exceed thirty (30) days, and terminate this BAA and the Agreement if Business Associate does not cure within such time; or
- (b) immediately terminate this BAA and the Agreement if Covered Entity reasonably and in good faith determines that a cure is not possible; or
- (c) if neither termination nor cure is feasible, Covered Entity may take such action as may be allowed or required by the HIPAA Rules.

5.3. Effect of Termination.

- (a) Except as provided in paragraph 5.3 (b), below, upon termination of this BAA for any reason, Business Associate shall return or destroy, at Covered Entity's option and expense, all PHI. Business Associate shall insure compliance with this requirement by its subcontractors, if any. Any such destruction shall comply with the applicable guidance of HHS in effect at the time of such destruction and Business Associate shall provide to Covered Entity a certification attesting to such compliance.
- (b) Should Business Associate conclude that returning or destroying any PHI is not feasible, Business Associate shall immediately notify Covered Entity in writing of the circumstances upon which it bases this conclusion. Upon Covered Entity's written concurrence that such return or destruction of PHI is infeasible, Business Associate shall extend the protections of this BAA to such PHI, and shall limit its further uses and disclosures to those purposes that necessitate Business Associate continuing to maintain this PHI. The obligation of Business Associate under this provision shall continue for as long as Business Associate maintains this PHI, shall survive termination of this BAA, and shall continue to bind Business Associate, its agents, contractors, successors and assigns, for however long this PHI is held by any of them.

- 6.3. This BAA may be amended or modified only in a writing signed by the parties. The parties intend, however, that this BAA comply with all applicable laws and regulations and that the requirement of any new or amended law or regulation affecting this BAA be incorporated herein at such time as it becomes effective. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree to take such action to amend this BAA from time to time as is necessary for either party to comply with any requirement of federal or state law or regulation, or any amendments thereto. Should a party believe in good faith that any provision of this BAA fails to substantially comply with the then-current requirements of law, that party shall notify the other party in writing, specifying the purported non-compliance and proposed revision(s). The parties shall negotiate in good faith, for a period of up to fifteen (15) calendar days, to so amend the terms of this BAA. If, after such 15-day period, the parties cannot agree to an acceptable amendment(s), then either party can terminate the BAA upon written notice to the other party, with such termination being effective immediately upon receipt.
- 6.4. No party may assign its respective rights and obligations under this BAA without the prior written consent of the other party.
